What is RAM?

The RAM program is a comprehensive education and professional designation program offered to property management professional by NABO. The longest running and most well respected program of its kind, RAM is the credential of distinction for managers of apartments (both market rate and affordable), condominiums and cooperative housing.

The RAM designation exists to recognize those individuals who have successfully met the requirements for this designation and are knowledgeable in all the essential aspects of property operations, including administrative and financial management, marketing, resident services, maintenance, fair housing, and security.

Accelerate your career with RAM

Earning the RAM designation demonstrates to your peers, clients, employers, and potential employers that you have superior training, in-depth knowledge and practical experience, and that you are committed to the highest standards of professional ethics.

The RAM designation accelerates your career by giving potential employers and regulatory agencies an objective measurement of your expertise and knowledge in the area of apartment management.
